Held in Conjunction with the Temecula Street Painting Festival and Festival of the Arts

Spend six days painting street scenes, vistas and the historic buildings of Old Town Temecula. You'll be part of the festivities planned for the Street Painting Festival and Artists and will be provided coffee, juice, water and pastries for breakfast, lunch certificates on Saturday & a reception on Sunday. There is a $500 purchase award for the "Best of Show" plus a $200 first place with a FREE WEEKEND* at DORLAND MOUNTAIN Arts Colony near Temecula, and a $100 Artists' Choice Award. The "Best of Show" work will become a part of the City of Temecula's permanent collection and the Best of Show Artist will receive a one-man show in the Merc Art Gallery at the Old Town Temecula Community Theater.

For information on lodgings and Old Town Temecula please visit www.temeculacvb.com.
For event information and additional forms see www.temeculacalifornia.com

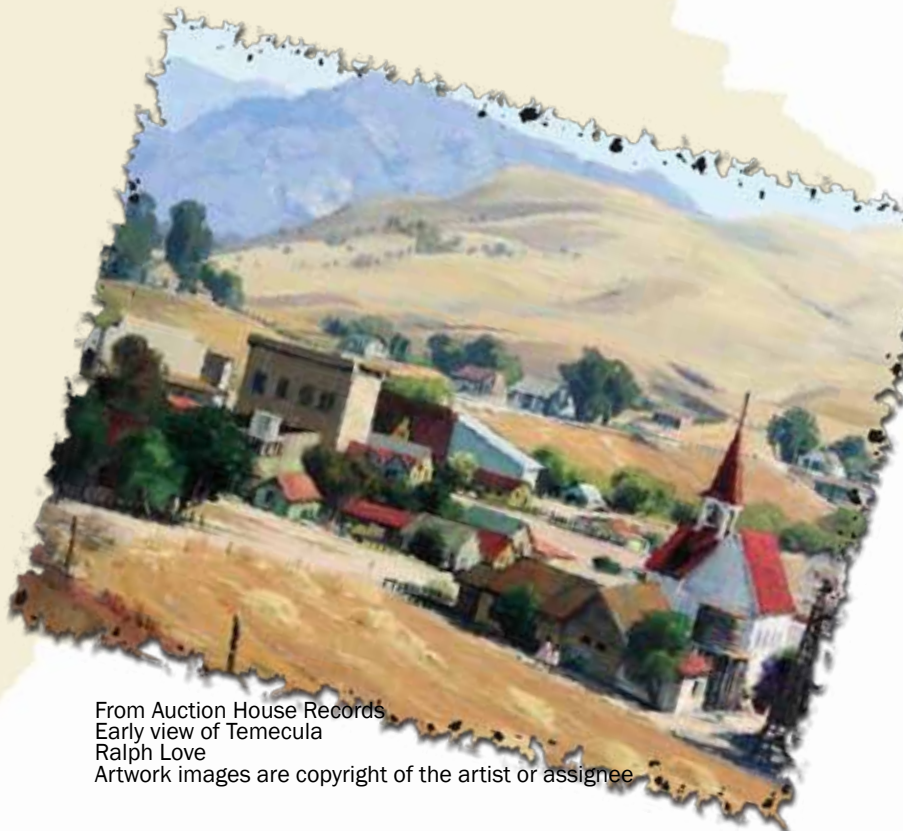

This event is held in conjunction with the Old Town Temecula Street Painting Festival June 22-24, at Old Town Temecula's Town Square, Main and Mercedes Streets. Over 125 artists paint giant murals on the asphalt during the three-day event.

Join us as Plein Air brings another dimension of visual arts to the Temecula Festival of the Arts with exhibits, sales, and a total art experience.

Completed pieces will be displayed in the Temecula Civic Center Conference room. Artists can sell completed pieces during this show. All work must be done in Old Town Temecula M-S, June 18-23, 2012. A silent auction of any pieces not sold will be held from 3-5 pm Sunday. Artists are encouraged to designate which pieces are available for immediate purchase and which are to be reserved for the judging. Judging is held from 3-4:30 pm Sunday.

*Subject to availability. Winning artist will receive information to make reservations at the Colony. Dorland Mountain Arts Colony is a retreat nestled in the hills southeast of the Temecula Valley.
